

RICH WALLACE

Email: richwallaceaz@gmail.com

Cell: 480-707-8540

MICROSOFT CERTIFIED .NET APPLICATION DEVELOPER Specializing in Enterprise Application and Data Integration with BizTalk Server

Microsoft certified and highly motivated application developer with 10+ years of system architecture and business logic programming. Result oriented with proven ability to design and develop effective real world solutions with current technology. Strong ability to proactively identify and resolve challenges internal to system architecture, database inconsistencies and business logic implementations by managing application logs and performance monitors. Strengths in:

- Microsoft .NET Framework
- Microsoft BizTalk Server
- MS BRE Policy/Rule Development
- SQL Database Administration
- ETL Data Processing (Informatica)
- Technical Documentation
- Microsoft SQL Server
- Application Design
- Integration Design
- XML/XSLT Development
- Project Management
- Written Communication

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

J. F. Shea Co., Inc. – Scottsdale, AZ

1999 – Present

SENIOR PROGRAMMER/ANALYST

Responsible for developing Enterprise Application Integration solutions across multiple applications, databases and business partners using XML and other data providers.

Currently working as an integral part of the Data Management Group internal to the J. F. Shea corporate organization as the Senior Programmer.

KEY RESULTS:

- Key developer role involved in applying EAI to company environment
- Introduced Microsoft BizTalk Server to prepare for EAI project
- Developed administration applications to aid in supporting framework
- Provided delivery to both internal and external points of integration
- Built several corporate utilized ASP.NET applications using integration sources
- Utilize Informatica ETL (Extraction Transformation Load) tools to integrate batch based (non-real time) applications and databases
- Create and maintain production data sources (SQL, Access, XML)
- Developed streamlined communication solution between corporate environment and third party survey corporation
- Create and maintain Operational Data Store data access points including integration adapters and web services
- Training team members and support staff on new solutions.

RICH WALLACE

– Page 2 –

Choice Hotels International – Phoenix, AZ

1996 – 1999

PROPERTY SYSTEMS ANALYST

Joined corporation as an entry level reservations agent responsible for key point of customer service and selling reservations for franchise properties.

Technical analyst representative during the implementation of new Windows based Property Management System developed by organization. Assisted in the creation of a new Research & Analysis team responsible for communicating application challenges between first level support team and development team. Performed database administration tasks and SQL programming to identify and resolve database and application anomalies.

Accepted role as Systems Analyst and acquired responsibility of integration application utilized to process reservations to franchise properties using satellite based message transactions.

KEY RESULTS:

- Provided customer service for 3000+ franchise properties as central reservations agent
- Utilized as resource for new Property Management System during implementation and rollout to all properties over 2+ years
- Provided training for internal support personnel on new technologies
- Performed network and database administration tasks for 3000+ properties
- Developed database backup strategy for SQL based properties
- Assigned as initial System Analyst for windows based solutions
- Acted as primary liaison between Research & Analysis and Development departments
- Responsible for supporting application integration between central reservations system and property management system

EDUCATION

Accelerated Computer Training – The Training Camp (December 2004)

Training Camp – Scottsdale, AZ

High School Graduate (May 1994)

North Canyon High School – Phoenix, AZ